"This is just the worst thing that could have happened to me. It's utterly dire! New people are moving in next door. And that lot, of all people! I just can't believe it"

No, no! Wanda just can't believe it. This is decidedly too much! Fabian Schilling of all people, Fabian the spoilsport, the ultimate tell-tale and worst teacher's pet ever is moving in next door! With his whole family, which is bound to be every bit as unbearable as Fabian. As if it wasn't bad enough that Wanda has had to put up with him every single day at school for the past four weeks. But that he's going to be getting on her nerves all the time at home too is really just too much!

After all her attempts to simply ignore the family have failed, Wanda and her best friend Katti decide that more drastic measures will be required if the Schillings are to be made to disappear as quickly as possible. They carefully formulate their strategy, and »Operation Schilling« is born. First task on the agenda: to hide a dead fish in the house ...
